

What ideas do you have for using/sharing these tools?

Using in schools

Using the worksheet and resources in career classes and/or home/advisory rooms.

It's a tool that can be used across many platforms.

A great resource for students to view that gives them concrete information and steps to take.

Use with younger students..freshman

Worksheet can be used in a variety of classes. It is a user friendly tool that is updated and inviting.

Using the steps...very tangible to students.

Connecting students with professionals with a list of questions to help them feel confident with the purpose of the interview

Utilization of these in the FutureForward™ tool that is being used by service cooperatives around MN. Would be very helpful for the students of SE MN.

Can the worksheet be uploaded into MCIS or a similar portfolio?

Sharing in/via Schools

Share with ALL teachers-staff inservice maybe?

share in advisory or Career Seminar courses and CTE classes

Distribute through schools' social media accounts and private parent social media groups

Bring to principals and careers teachers within the school and using it school-wide.

Sharing/Using in Broader Community...

Finding engagement opportunities that create the right balance of communication amongst students,parents, and communities. Examples: Guest speakers, student brainstorm panels...

Chamber - email blasts Presentations Develop opportunities for those that don't "typically" engage in these types of opportunities.

community events/celebrations, Health and Human Services could include??? County Fairs...

How will we market the "exposure" opportunities to parents and students >>> community Need a connection point for students to community.

going to continue to connect with businesses and work on videos to interview the many different roles in any given business

A great resource for WDI to work with their youth. I love that SWWC is thinking about using it both in school and outside of school.

Develop common message with workforce centers/schools; share "a common" tool or process. Used separately or together, the end user (youth) will hear a common message.

Social media and private parent groups

Parents are so valuable, but not the only way to inform and influence youth.
